WE MUST NOT DRIFT.

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving. To reach the port of heaven, we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it. But we must sail and not drift nor lie at anchor.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR R. CZERWONKY

Miss Mynn Cogswell of Tulsa "Boosts" Minneapolis Player.

STUDIED UNDER HIM

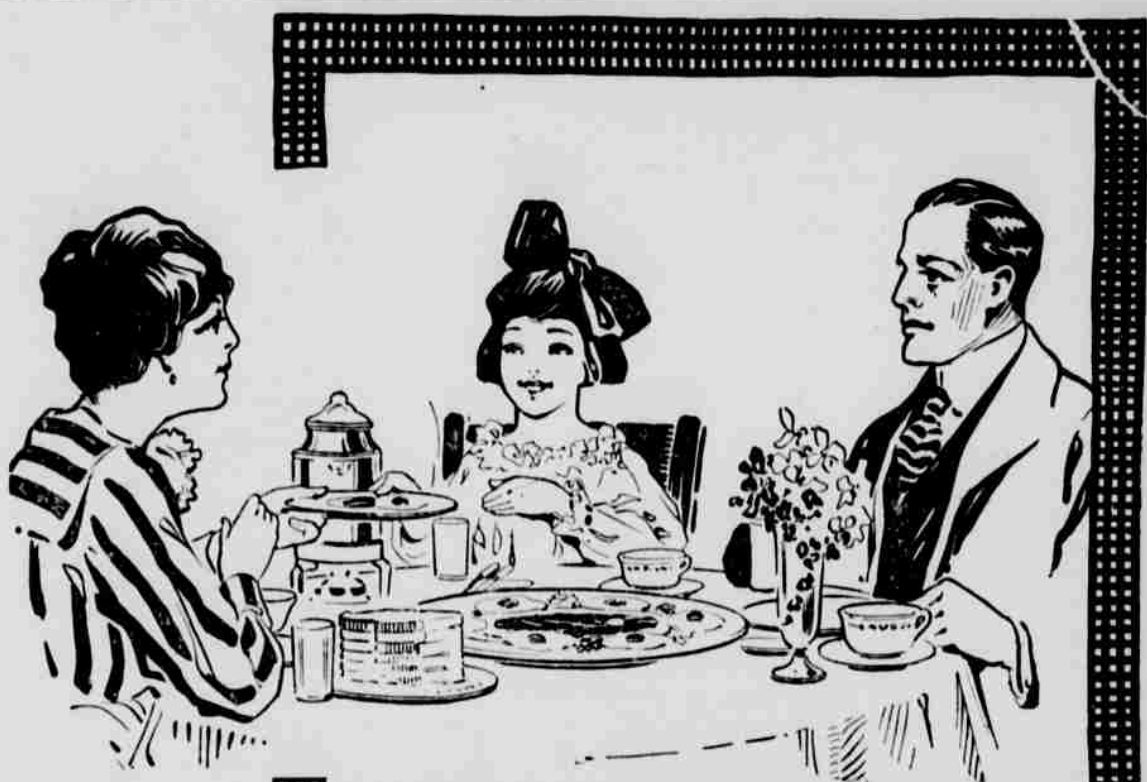

Is Concermaster of Symphony Orchestra That Comes April 29.

Richard Czerwonky, violinist and concertmaster of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, which plays at Convention hall Saturday, April 29, is one of the truly great violinists of the age. In the opinion of Miss Mynn Cogswell, Tulsa's best-known artist on that instrument, Miss Cogswell studied with Czerwonky last summer. "In Minneapolis," she said yesterday, "Czerwonky is more than a musician or an individual; he is an institution. In that city he is looked upon as the greatest living artist of his kind, and I am gratified to learn that he will appear here with the Minneapolis Symphony, for even in that notable array of talent Czerwonky stands out prominently."

A Prophetic Eye. "But few violinists," she continued, "have established a firmer or greater
